Safety Precautions

Our animal pals are part of the family – they're well-behaved, but still have their wild instincts. They might scratch, nip, or get a little antsy if they feel threatened. But don't worry, our team is trained to handle anything that comes up. We'll have a first aid kit and hand sanitizer on hand for everyone's safety.

Wildlife Interactions

We want your little wildlings to get up close and personal with our animal buddies! However, for safety (and to keep our critters comfy), we won't be able to let them hold the animals. But don't worry, there'll be plenty of opportunities to get close and learn all about them!

Who'll Be there on the day

We'll do our best to bring your requested animals, but remember, nature sometimes has its own plans. Whether they're feeling under the weather, taking a nap, or just need some "me-time," we might need to bring a substitute. Rest assured, whoever shows up will be awesome!

Signing of Waiver

Before the fun begins, we need a waiver signed by the parent/guardian who booked the event. If it's not signed, we may have to cancel the party, and we really don't want that to happen!

Public Liability Insurance

We're covered! Happy Little Turtle has a solid insurance policy with up to $20 million in damages. We're all about peace of mind.

Full Payment

To secure your spot, we'll need full payment four (4) days before your adventure session. You'll get an invoice via email, and payments can be made directly online. Easy peasy!

Cancellations / Rescheduling

Need to make a change? No worries! If you need to cancel, we'll give you a full refund of any payments made. We understand life happens!
